ORDER:-

In the reference 1st read above, Government have issued orders abolishing the District Gazetteers Department and merge the entire staff with the Office of the Chief Commissioner of Land Administration. The District Gazetteers Department while relieving the staff to report in CCLA, have surrendered the permanent advance to Government vide challan dated. 18.12.2007. Subsequently, on administrative grounds in supersession of orders issued in the reference 1st read above, Government have transferred and attached the entire staff of District Gazetteers Department along with posts to the Office of the State Archives and directed to form a separate unit under the control of the Director, A.P. State Archives & Research Institute

2. According to Article 96 (d) of A.P. Financial Code Volume I, in case of new organization, the amount of permanent advance should be fixed on conservative basis subject to review after six months. The District Gazetteers Department is functioning as a separate unit under the control of A.P. State Archives and Research Institute, the Finance Department has allotted budget separately for the year 2009-10. Since, the functioning of the department is compilation and publication of Gazetteers of all the district and State Gazetteers and in the process of collection of information; it has to incur certain expenditure to convene meetings with district and departmental officials regularly. The Director has therefore, requested for sanction of Rs,2,500/- towards permanent advance for smooth functioning of the department.

4. The Government, after careful examination of the matter, hereby accord sanction towards Permanent Advance of Rs.1,000/- (Rupees one thousand only) to the Office of the Director A.P. State Archives & Research Institute and District Gazetteers Department, for smooth functioning of the District Gazetteers Department, a separate Unit with Department.

5. This order issues with the concurrence of Finance (Expr. H.E) Department vide their U.O.No.19186/347/Expr.HE/2009, dated 05-09-2009.
